Explore and Debate:

Migration

Should we be free to move between countries?

Project Outcomes:

This project sees the children studying Europe. The children explore Europe geographically and through the concept of Migration. The children discuss and debate people’s freedom of movement between countries. They gain an appreciation for what draws people to certain countries and away from others to understand the reasons why people move to different countries. Through PSHE the children further their understanding of democracy and the rule of law and begin to make comparisons between how our country and others are run.

Spiritual Outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• We are able to demonstrate our beliefs and personal principles about laws through our discussions.• We explore and appreciate different countries in Europe valuing or challenging what makes them unique.
Moral Outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• We have a clear understanding of right and wrong and the moral codes of Britain.• We discuss and debate if people should be able to move between countries, having explored the reasons for why they might chose to do this.
Social Outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• We know some of the laws of British society; explore their context and recognise why it is important that laws are followed by all people.• We adopt the appropriate behaviour depending on the situation.• We develop an appreciation and respect for why people may move to different countries.
Cultural Outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• We explore the differences in European countries geographically and culturally.• We will visit the Science Museum in London exploring scientific discoveries and phenomena.
