

Keep Calm and Carry On!

Project Outcomes:

In this project, the children explore the reasons for conflict on a personal and global scale, exploring the question of ‘Is it right to fight?’ History and World War Two leads the learning in year six this term, enabling the children to develop a great understanding, through a range of engaging learning opportunities, as to what it was like to live in wartime Britain. They explore the causes of conflict in the world and how it affects people’s lives, Conflict on a personal scale is also examined in relation to the children’s experiences of the concept, developing their skills for resolving conflict peacefully.

By the end of this topic the children have developed a greater understanding behind the concept of conflict both in their own lives and throughout the world. They are able to explain some of the reasons for why conflict occurred throughout history and why it continues to occur today.

Spiritual Outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• We are able to empathise, show concern and compassions for people living in times and places of conflict.• We reflect on the conflict in our lives, considering how it can be eradicated by the choices, values and beliefs that we uphold.
Moral Outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• We are able to distinguish between right and wrong, exploring the possible choices we could make and the pressures that are placed upon us to make these choices.• We demonstrate an understanding of the need to explore possible choices and learn from our experiences and mistakes to make a better choice next time.
Social Outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• We explore and understand how different societies function and use this information to make judgements about why conflict has occurred, whilst simultaneously considering how different actions could bring about more harmonious outcomes.• We reflect on our contribution to our learning environment and the wider world, considering how we can make a more positive contribution to these societies.
Cultural Outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• We examine other religions and consequential beliefs and values of the people living in our society, enabling us to understand their perspective on life and behaviour in our community.• We explore how the media influences our and others thoughts and opinions about other cultures and challenge unacceptable behaviour.
