Land use in the local area

Use the table below to write down the human and physical features you identify on the OS map of your local area.

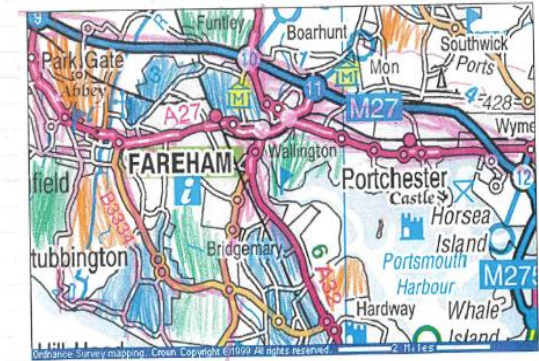

Human features	Physical features
parcs houses shops highways restaurants parking motorways supermarkets schools labs	fields mountains rivers hills lakes seas moors forests

Complete the key below to show the colour you are using for each type of land use on your OS map.

Key	residential	transport	recreational commercial	agricultural

Challenge

Write about where features are on your map using the eight points of the compass.
For example, 'There are houses in the north-east.'

Show not tell

Show!	Don't tell
Brian's face was so red he looked like he was about to explode his eyes were clenched and in a few seconds he erupted like a volcano.	Brian was angry. He started to yell.
Bailey's face had a massive grin that went from ear to ear and he was skipping down the road.	Bailey was happy.
Bella entered her bedroom and her mouth grew wide and her hands covered her mouth.	Bella was shocked.
The doorbell rang and the girl went to go open the door and when she did she cried with happy tears and jumped on his dad.	She was excited to see her Dad.
When he came home from school he checked his bag on the floor sprinted up stairs and ran in his room and started crying away.	He felt sad.

Facts that affect our health.

Patient one

- 10 years old.
- Only likes to eat chicken nuggets, chips or burgers.
- When not at school, they play on their games console until bedtime.
- Often goes to bed around midnight.
- Gets a lift to school in the car and does not like sports.

Start by having a healthier diet.

And try going outside with your friends instead of playing on your console.

Go to bed earlier to feel more refreshed when you wake up.

Try walking to school and maybe do an after school club to get more active.

Patient three

- 74 years old.
- Lives at home alone and does not like going outside.
- Struggles to cook dinners so only eats ready meals.
- Has a small glass of alcohol a few times a week.
- Keeps old medication mixed with current ones.

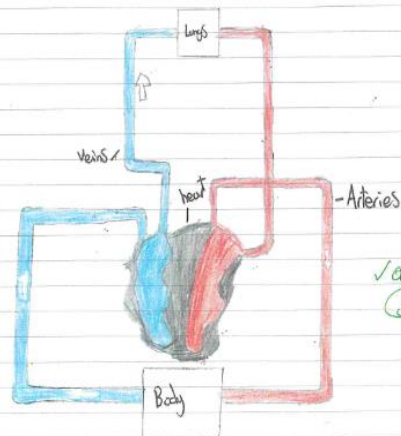

Try to make friends
Get help to cook.

Give your old medication to the pharmacy

Maybe get some family/friend to come and check on him every once in a while.
