The cosmic

As I was walking back to the mysterious, magical ride I felt my tummy tingling and my legs trembling with excitement. I could smell hot dogs I was so eager to get one but I knew if I wanted to get to the ride I'd have to get there quickly. Then I saw a 'Ice cream stand and said to my self "Just a little bit won't hurt right?" but the other kids as we said "no you have to get there Now!". I replied "yes your right I need to get there" so I kept on walking.

I could smell petrol from the car rides, the sweets and the pizza. But I could smell a weird smell of chlorine. I heard screaming from the people on rides and BOOM CRASH from the bumper cars. I felt worried that I was going to get told off but I have walked far enough I needed to get there. I had bubbling butterflies in my tummy and I felt like as I was climbing I was scared if I was shaking so much I wouldn't be able to get hands on the cosmic ride.

I thought it was a dream but it was all real.
