Value of celebrating Passover

Passover is important because it lets Jews think of how lucky they are and to be free and reminds them that God gave them freedom thousands of years ago. It helps them to realise that freedom is precious and take notice of the people who don't have freedom. Some Jews might also think it is a good time to bond with they're family. Good detail

It makes them realise how lucky it is to be free.
It reminds them that God gave Jews freedom thousands of years ago.
It helps them to realise freedom is precious.
It reminds them that of all the people who don't have freedom.
