

EPIC Learners

Exploration

Evaluation

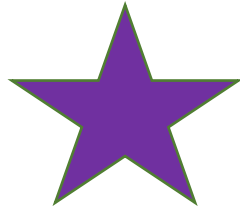

Perseverance

Independence

Challenge

Creative Thinking

Co-operation and Collaboration

EPIC Awards

Exploration

Evaluation

Perseverance

Independence

Challenge

Creative Thinking

Co-operation and Collaboration

Year 3

17.01.24

Decrire les formes

un petit carré bleu.

A small blue square.

un petit cercle violet.

small purple circle.

un grand triangle jaune.

A big yellow triangle.

un petit carré noir.

A small black square.

un petit triangle vert.

A small green triangle.

EPIC

Indépendance !

Name: Jenson

Subject: French

This work is EPIC because:

- 1) Incredible French translating [Vert –green]
- 2) Accurate spelling
- 3) Above and beyond French

Year 4

Name: Florence

Subject: English

This work is EPIC because:

- 1) Colour coded sentence types
- 2) Neat paragraphs
- 3) Stunning presentation

18.1.24

Harry in Diagon Alley

Harry, Hagrid topped his umbrella 5 times.

1-2-3. He mounted to himself.

It was a sudden. The small Harry Potter thought was normal, unusual noticed, stepped into an umbrella, and just then Harry just gasped. The sort of answer he had into a street, a street called Diagon Alley.

The street, Diagon Alley, was filled with clashed raincoats and umbrellas in raincoats the shops of all shapes and sizes were venturing into the city, and covered in wet. Lots of people were talking or gossiping, but some were boasting and selling.

Harry had shiny black hair, and he avoided it out of the way, to see his small red lightning bolt scar bulging in excitement! His eyes shined in his round, up-shaped glasses, and his mouth droop in wonder. Harry was amazed. The all-ginger boy gazed at rusty goblins, my raincoats, boards and antiquities scullions.

"Or there is where you'll get your bits and bobs!" concocted the bearded giant.

People were swarming and about they swarmed in the dark horizon, but Harry could hear it clearly.

Harry noticed his various types striped trousers and what gave into the shop, so genuinely, that every round umbrella licked into the rain and dropped a small object into the guttered road.

After a while, Harry and Hagrid entered a building, like none other. The boy was amazed at the sight of the gleaming, light, ivory white right back having into the various shop.

"Is this it Hagrid? I mean Diagon Alley?" Harry wanted to know.

Year 5

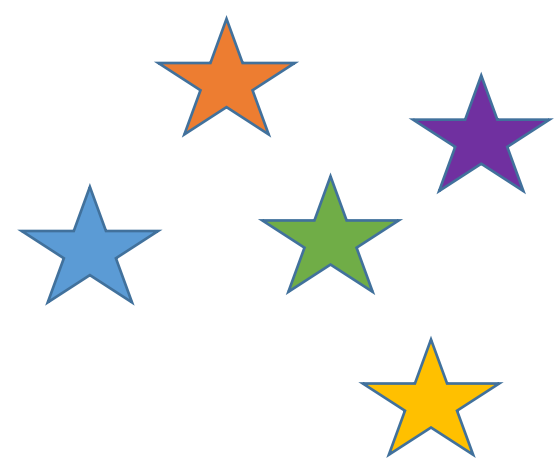

Name: Dylan T and James

Subject: Music

This work is EPIC because:

- 1) Deeply focused in playing with no distractions
- 2) Followed music sheet accurately
- 3) Worked well as a team

Year 6

Sats-style question

1. a) 'sprinted along the corridor.'
b) 'she'd crept down the narrow staircase.'
2. a) 'Father or Mrs Carter should catch her now.'
b) 'Ruled their London townhouse with icy control.'
3. a) True 'The summer had ended so oddly, and autumn is after summer.'
b) True 'she'd seen her name written.'
c) True 'Her fragile health.'
d) False 'goes to boarding school.'

Mr Linden's study

Varnished

Chair- auburn, hand-carved chair legs with red leather cushion.

- silver, bronze, gold patterns on auburn cupboard.
- freshly cleared glass panes.
- not a speck of dust on cabinet.
- ornate spruce embued with brass ornaments.

• varnished desk with peath and ink neatly in the right corner.

• A printer printing papers that he wrote on his type-writer.

• Skyscraper shelves filled with organised books.

• chancelier

• noble

• brown terracotta hand-carved wooden spruce legs.

• A scarlet leather cushion sitting on the legs.

• strange aztec patterns.

EPIC Creativity

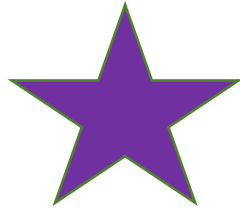

Name: Theo JM

Subject: English

This work is EPIC because:

- 1) Incredible note taking
- 2) Amazing presentation
- 3) Used what he had for an amazing result

Well done to all our EPIC Learners

Exploration

Evaluation

Perseverance

Independence

Challenge

Creative Thinking

Co-operation and Collaboration